

I am currently a no-code Tech. Earning my General by learning Morse Code will be a challenge. Based on the number of people who come into our electronics store who are using the Amateur Bands without licenses I cannot support removing the code requirements. It is an important part of Amateur Radio. It would be a real shame to see Amateur Radio go the way of Citizens Band. Please retain the Code requirements for General Class license.